

2017 SINGAPORE GRAND PRIX

From	The FIA Stewards of the Meeting	Document	36
To	The Team Manager, Red Bull Racing	Date	17 September 2017
		Time	23:37

The Stewards, having received a report from the Race Director, summoned (documents 29, 30 & 31) the drivers and team representatives, have considered the following matter and determine the following:

No / Driver 33 - Max Verstappen

Competitor Red Bull Racing

Time 20:04

Session Race

Fact Alleged causing a collision at the start of the race.

Offence Involved in an alleged incident as defined by Article 38.1 of the FIA Formula One Sporting Regulations.

Decision No further action.

Reason The Stewards examined video evidence and heard from Sebastian Vettel, the driver of Car 5, Kimi Raikkonen, the driver of Car 7, Max Verstappen, the driver of Car 33 and the team representatives.

Driver of Car 7 had a very good start and was able to attempt overtaking of Car 33 on the left hand side. At the same time, Car 5 which had a slower start, moved to the left hand side of the track; Car 33 and Car 7 then collided resulting in a chain collision with Car 5 and ultimately Car 14 (Fernando Alonso) at the next turn. Cars 7, 5 and 33 had to retire immediately as a result of the incident; and Car 14 retired some laps thereafter.

The Stewards consider that no driver was found to have been wholly or predominantly to blame for the incident and will therefore take no further action.
