Note to Teams

During the race, any driver leaving the track on the exit of turn 8 who appears to have gained a clear and lasting advantage by doing so, will be reported to the stewards. We would not, for example, expect a driver who left the track on the exit of turn 8 to attempt to pass a driver in front of him into turn 1.

Furthermore, any drivers who repeatedly leave the track on the exit of turn 8 will also be reported to the stewards.

Drivers are reminded that if they leave the track they may re-join but only if they do so safely and without gaining any lasting advantage (Article 20.2 of the Sporting Regulations).
