2025 FIA elections – Applications for the World Motor Sport Council

Dear President,

We hope this letter finds you well.

We remind you that the deadline for submitting applications for the World Motor Sport Council as well as for providing all required documents, including the Declaration of Interest form and the non-disclosure agreement (NDA), is 19 September 2025.

We therefore invite you to take the necessary steps to ensure that all required documents (including those provided on request) are submitted to the FIA Administration within the set deadline.

We also take this opportunity to inform you that some information regarding your organisation, included in the FIA Directory of Members (the Directory), may be provided to the individuals who officially announced their intention to be candidates for the presidency of the FIA. Such information will only be provided for the purpose of preparing their candidature for the presidency of the FIA and running their campaign. Please ensure that this information is passed on to the member(s) of your club named in the Directory.

The Legal Office remains at your disposal to provide you with any further details regarding the above.

Yours sincerely,

Paul O'Dowd
Chief Legal Officer
