

Jean Todt

Jean Todt was born on 25 February 1946 in Pierrefort, Cantal (France).

He has one son, Nicolas, aged 41, and shares his life with actress, film producer and UNDP Goodwill Ambassador Michelle Yeoh.

He is an alumnus of the Ecole des Cadres in Paris.

RALLY CO-DRIVER

In 1966, he began his career and participated in the World Rally Championship until 1981. That same year, alongside Guy Fréguelin, he won the World Rally Championship for Manufacturers with a Talbot Lotus.

Between 1966 and 1981, Jean Todt co-drove alongside 18 of the most successful drivers of the period for 12 major manufacturers, winning many international rallies in the process.

PEUGEOT TALBOT SPORT

He was then appointed Peugeot's Director of Racing and founded Peugeot Talbot Sport (PTS), which claimed the Drivers' and Manufacturers' FIA World Rally Championship titles in 1985 and 1986 before going on to take first place in the general classification in four editions of the Paris-Dakar Rally between 1987 and 1990.

In 1990, Jean Todt became Director of Sporting Activities of the PSA Peugeot Citroën Group, overseeing Peugeot's participation in the World Sports Car Championship, which Peugeot won in 1992. It also took two consecutive victories at the 1992 and 1993 24 Hours of Le Mans.

FERRARI

On 1 July 1993, Jean Todt left Peugeot and became Director of Ferrari's Racing Division. Under his leadership, from 1993 to 2008, Scuderia Ferrari won 14 FIA Formula One World titles (eight Constructors' and six Drivers' titles, five thanks to Michael Schumacher and one with Kimi Raikkönen) and 106 Grand Prix victories.

In 2001, he took on responsibility for all motor sport activities of the Ferrari-Maserati Group and then he was appointed General Manager of Ferrari in 2004. This same year, Jean Todt was appointed CEO of Ferrari. In 2008, he took up a new post as a Special Advisor for the President of Ferrari.

He left Ferrari in April 2009.

FIA PRESIDENCY

Jean Todt was elected President of the Fédération Internationale de l'Automobile (FIA) on 23 October 2009, re-elected on 6 December 2013, and again on 8 December 2017.

UN SECRETARY-GENERAL'S SPECIAL ENVOY

Since April 29 2015, Jean Todt was appointed by the UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon as his Special Envoy for Road Safety and he was confirmed on April 2017 by the new UN Secretary-General António Guterres.
