FIA INTERNATIONAL SPORTING CODE (ISC)

Summary of the amendments adopted by the FIA General Assembly on 8 December 2018

Entry into force: 1 January 2019

- Clarifications regarding the gender used in the ISC (preamble)
- Clarifications in relation to classifications (Article 2.1.3)
- Clarifications regarding unrecognised competitions (Articles 2.1.5.a, 9.10 and 9.17)
- Classifications of national championships open to foreign licence-holders (Article 2.3)
- For ASN not belonging to a Zone, the organisation of a second competition outside the national territory may be authorised for national championships composed exclusively of competitions reserved for cars of a certain level of performance (Article 2.4.4)
- Update of the provisions relating to National Championship Competitions run outside the national territory (Article 2.4.4.c)
- Zone Competitions: clarification regarding the participation of EU Professional Competitors and Drivers (Article 2.6.3.a)
- Extension to eight years (instead of four) of the additional period following the expiry of the homologation of Group A, N, R and RGT cars (Article 2.7.1.c)
- Clarifications in relation to records (Articles 2.7.4.g and 21)
- Clarifications regarding administrative permissions (Article 3.4.1)
- Clarifications in relation to timing (Articles 8.4.5.b, 11.5, 11.13.3 and 11.16.2)
- Clarifications regarding conflicts of interest (Article 11.5)
- Clarifications regarding penalties (Articles 12.2.4 and 12.3)
- Article 17 (Betting) is replaced with the new Appendix M (Manipulation of Competitions)
- Integration of a new motor sport discipline: addition of slalom / gymkhana (Article 21)
- Various minor corrections (Articles 3.5.12, 12.2.3.c, 12.7.3 and 13.3)
- Clarifications regarding the name of Appendix B (relevant ISC articles modified accordingly)

Warning: the numbering in the 2019 ISC has changed (from Article 17 onwards).

Any questions?
integrity-regulatory@fia.com

No regulatory value