SILVERSTONE FACTS - GRAND PRIX CIRCUIT

Copse Corner:

Named after nearby Copses - Chapel Copse wood and Foxhole Copse.

Maggotts Corner:

Named after Maggot Moor.

Becketts Corner:

Adjacent to the ancient (1174) Chapel of St Thomas a` Beckett.

Chapel Curve:

Also relating to the Thomas a` Beckett Chapel.

Hangar Straight:

Used to sweep past two large aircraft hangars that were used in World War 2.

Stowe Corner

Derives from the famous Stowe School to the south of the circuit.

Vale:

The link between Stowe Corner and Club Corner, which is set at a lower level to provide some undulation. It is thus a kind of vale and is also located in the area of Aylesbury Vale District Council.

Club Corner:

The RAC organised the first Grand Prix at Silverstone and were instrumental in the naming of the original corners and this name was chosen to reflect the RAC's clubhouse in Pall Mall.

International Pits Straight:

When the Grand Prix Circuit is divided into the International Circuit and the National Circuit, this is the Pits Straight located on the International Circuit.

Abbey Corner:

"Luffield Abbey Farm" is what the existing Farm used to be called. The original Abbey was called Abbey Curve but the latest iteration is too acute to be called a curve and so it has been named 'Abbey Corner'.

Farm Curve:

Village Corner

Right hander after 'Farm Curve'. This is called 'Village Corner' after Silverstone Village.

The Loop:

The long left hand corner referred to as 'The Loop'.

Aintree Corner

The next, more gradual left hander, is called Aintree after the circuit where the British Grand Prix took place in 1955, 1957, 1959, 1961 and 1962. This is consistent with the existing Brooklands Corner named after the circuit where the British Grand Prix took place in 1926 and 1927.

Wellington Straight:

The straight to Brooklands, formerly known as the National Straight. This has been renamed 'Wellington Straight' after the aircraft based at Silverstone during WW2. The straight is one of the old runways.

Brooklands Corner:

Named after the circuit where the British Grand Prix took place in 1926 and 1927.

Luffield Corner:

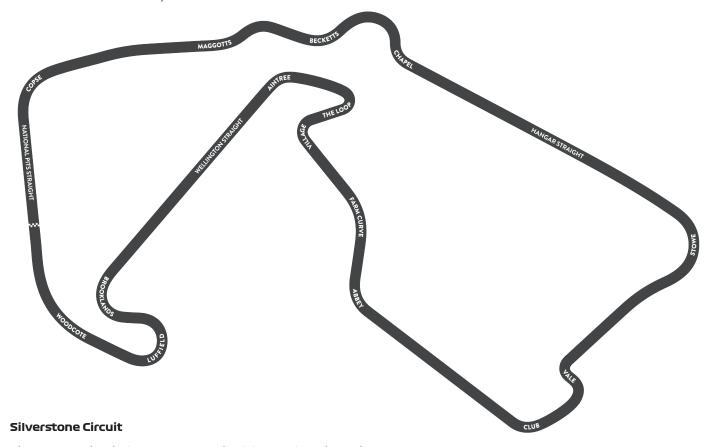

Named after the ancient Luffield Abbey.

Woodcote Corner:

Named after the location of the RAC Club in Surrey.

National Pits Straight:

When the Grand Prix Circuit is divided into the international Circuit and the National Circuit, this is the Pits Straight located on the National Circuit.

BRITISH RACING DRIVERS' CLUB WWW.BRDC.CO.UK

The British Racing Drivers' Club (BRDC) is very much regarded as custodian of motor racing's bloodline and heritage in Great Britain, but its history is rooted in a very different era. In the late 1920s eminent bacteriologist Dr Dudley Benjafield, one of the famed 'Bentley Boys' and three time Le Mans winner, organised a series of dinner parties from which the Club was born.

In April 1928 an official inauguration took place with just 25 Members. The defined sense of purpose of the Club was to promote the interests of motor sport generally, to celebrate any specific performance in motor sport, to extend hospitality to racing drivers from overseas and to further the interests of British drivers competing abroad.

Membership entry is and always has been restricted to ladies and gentlemen with proven experience at specific levels of racing competition over a number of seasons. Associate Membership is offered to those who have made an exceptional contribution to British motor sport over a considerable period of time, while Honorary Membership is bestowed upon distinctive individuals, such as Formula 1TM World Champions who would not normally qualify by dint of their nationality.

The Club is proud to say it has many of the best drivers in the world, both past and present, among its membership including Sir Jackie Stewart OBE, Nigel Mansell CBE, Damon Hill OBE and five time F1 TM World Champion Lewis Hamilton MBE.

Now, 91 years since the Club was formed, there are more than 800 Members ranging from 17 to 99 years old, while there are likely to be many more as young drivers progress to become Full Members from the Rising Stars and SuperStars schemes. The ethos of the Club remains unchanged with the celebration of past success and support and encouragement of drivers of today and the stars of the future remaining a priority.

The BRDC became a major force in international motor racing when it organised its first event, the BRDC 500-

Mile Race at Brooklands in 1929. The Club took over the lease of Silverstone from the Royal Automobile Club in 1952 before purchasing the site's freehold from the Ministry of Defence in 1971.

Since the 1960s, the circuit has been run by Silverstone Circuits Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary company of the BRDC which was formed to develop the commercial aspects of the property. Today it is one of the best motor racing facilities in the world and this very much remains the Club's aim for the future.

It is not just the Formula One British Grand Prix that Silverstone is proud to host at the 'Home of British Motor Racing'. Throughout the year, a huge amount of major International championships visit the circuit including MotoGP, the FIA World Endurance Championship and the FIA World Rally Cross Championship. These events running alongside the Great Britain's most high profile National championships such as the British Touring Car Championship and the British Superbikes Championship, gives Silverstone one of the most entertaining race calendars of any circuit in the world.

SILVERSTONE LANDMARKS

- 1948 Converted RAF World War II bomber training base hosts first Grand Prix in October, on a 3.67-mile circuit using the perimeter roads and former runways of the former air-field. Lap record set at 77mph by Luigi Villoresi (Maserati).
- 1949 The layout of the circuit was altered, to eliminate the use of the runways and instead use the whole of the perimeter track. A tight chicane, made of straw bales, was added at Club Corner to slow the cars as they drove towards Abbey Curve, making the track length three miles.
- 1950 Silverstone is the very first circuit to host a race for the then-new World Championship for Drivers. Silverstone visited on this occasion by King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, along with Princess Margaret and Earl and Lady Mountbatten. 'Royal Silverstone', as this meeting becomes known, attracted huge crowds. The circuit adopts a new shape, with the removal of the Club Chicane. This circuit llayout remains until the Woodcote Chicane is added in 1975.
- 1951 The Royal Automobile Club gives up running the circuit. The British Racing Drivers' Club takes on the lease and sets about turning the temporary airfield track into something more permanent.
- 1952 The pits are relocated to the straight between Woodcote and Copse Corners. Work also includes resurfacing parts of the track; also digging ditches and building earth banks on the outside of corners. On the track itself, widening and easing the line at Copse and Becketts changes the lap length to 2.927 miles. The Silverstone Club Circuit, for smaller meetings, is also born.
- 1953 Silverstone receives an award for providing the best flag marshals in the World. A special vote of thanks to the BRDC is handed out by Alberto Ascari, Giuseppe Farina and Luigi Villoresi. A helicopter visits the British Grand Prix for the very first time!

- 1955 The RAC decrees that Silverstone will alternate the British Grand Prix with the Aintree circuit in Liverpool.
- 1958 BRDC gains control of the whole Silverstone site, by acquiring the lease of the farming land within the circuit from the Ministry of Agriculture.
- 1963 Resurfacing of the circuit takes place, as does the widening of some of the track. Armco barrier is installed at the start of the pits, which are elevated and approached by a ramp.
- 1964 A new agreement with the RAC sees the British Grand Prix alternating between Silverstone and Brands Hatch.
- 1965 Jackie Stewart scores his first Formula 1 victory, driving a BRM in the non-championship International Trophy Race at the circuit.
- 1966 BRDC sets up Silverstone Circuits Ltd to look after its commercial activities.
- 1971 BRDC purchases the freehold of the entire 800-acre estate. The lap record tops 130mph (Jackie Stewart's Tyrrell-Ford). Woodcote Corner becomes famous as the high-speed challenge of Formula 1.
- 1973 Jody Scheckter spins his McLaren exiting Woodcote on lap one of Grand Prix and triggers a multi-car pile up. This incident prompts the BRDC to look into ways of slowing down Woodcote Corner; various ideas are put forward.
- 1975 44 modern pits are constructed and Woodcote is slowed by inserting a right-left-right S-bend in middle of the corner. The Woodcote Chicane instantly becomes a popular addition to the track for the crowds packed in the Woodcote Grandstands. Lap length is now 2.932 miles.
- 1977 Silverstone wins "Best Organised Grand Prix of the Year" award. To top it off, reigning World

Silverstone Circuit

Champion James Hunt wins the British Grand Prix, his only success of the year.

1979 – The entire circuit is re-surfaced with 'Delugrip' high-grip material. The lap record tops 140mph (Clay Regazzoni's Williams-Ford).

1985 – Keke Rosberg becomes the fastest man ever around Silverstone, with a pole-position qualifying lap of 160.925 mph in his Honda-turbo powered Williams. The lap record reaches 150mph (Alain Prost's McLaren-TAG Turbo). Final Grand Prix for the Woodcote Chicane.

1987 – A new sharp left-right corner called 'Luffield' is in-serted before Woodcote, to trim speeds over the start/finish line. Lap length now 2.969 miles.

1988 – Silverstone gains an 'exclusive' contract for the British Grand Prix. Despite the slower approach to Woodcote, Mansell qualifies his turbocharged Williams-Honda at close to 160mph for the GP. An all-new interna-tional press centre is built above pits, named after the first Silverstone track manager, Jimmy Brown.

1992 – Major revisions to the GP track add both spectator and driver appeal, with a new Becketts sequence, the Vale link between Stowe and Club, Bridge bend and the Priory in-field loop. Lap length now 3.247 miles.

1994 – Revisions to enhance driver safety, with increased gravel trap areas at Copse, Stowe, Vale, Abbey and Priory all completed in 18 days, using 1,000 lorry loads of materials and removing 850 lorry loads of top soil. A chicane at Abbey is introduced to slow the approach to Bridge Bend, while Copse Corner is tightened.

1996 – Revised Stowe Corner, faster than the 1994/95 version. An all-new Race Control Centre and a new International Circuit for major events outside the F1 Grand Prix. New lap length for the Grand Prix circuit is 3.152 miles, and the lap record is established by Jacques Villeneuve at an average speed of 127.096mph in 1m 29.288s.

1997 – Major revisions to Copse corner, with a faster curve reinstated, and alterations to the Priory, Brooklands, Luffield complex, while resurfacing of the entire Grand Prix lap (now 3.194 miles long) create a faster and safer circuit. The British GP is won by Jacques Villeneuve, but Michael Schumacher sets the new lap record at an average speed of 136.115mph.

1998 – New startline gantry under footbridge. Provision of a fully-equipped Support Race Paddock with hard standing. Concrete wall erected from Club to Abbey corners, with asphalt run-off area at Club. Raised banking at Priory Corner to house new grandstand.

1999 – All new pit straight grandstands are constructed. The new BRDC Clubhouse is opened. David Coulthard wins his first British Grand Prix.

2000 – The Grand Prix takes place in April for the first time. Torrential rain throughout the weekend causes many problems for traffic and parking arrangements. The sun shines on raceday, with David Coulthard scoring another popular victory.

2001 – The Grand Prix meeting moves back to its traditional July date. Octagon promote their first British Grand Prix. Legendary British radio and television commentator, Murray Walker, calls his final British Grand Prix before retirement at the end of the season. Silverstone and the BRDC recognise Walker's achievements by presenting him with the BRDC Gold Medal prior to the race.

2002 – A new main entrance, access roads, car parks and pedestrian walkways are the start of a major circuit development. The 'Masterplan', a joint venture between the BRDC, Octagon and Formula One Management is in full swing to improve Silverstone's facilities.

2003 – Continued development work creates a new vehicle bridge over the Club Straight, new car parking areas on the infield of the circuit for teams and media at the Grand Prix, and continued upgrading of spectator facilities (including the building of new toilet blocks). The old Stowe grandstands are removed. Rubens Barrichello wins the British Grand Prix driving a Ferrari.

2004 – One-way traffic routes further ease access to Silverstone. The Grand Prix is the last one promoted by IPG company, Silverstone Motorsports. Further developments at the Northamptonshire venue are expected to start shortly after the race on 11 July, as the venue strives to become a motorsport 'centre of excellence'.

2005 – Silverstone Circuits Limited becomes the operator and promoter of Silverstone circuit as a member of the BRDC Group of Companies. The 2005 British Grand Prix is a sell-out for the second year running, taking place in front of a capacity raceday crowd of 100,000. This follows a deal between the BRDC and the FIA securing the future of the British Grand Prix at Silverstone for at least the next five years.

2006 – British Grand Prix moves to June to avoid clash with FIFA World Cup Finals and brand new larger capacity grandstands erected at Luffield and Woodcote. Damon Hill is elected as the new President of the BRDC.

2007 – Silverstone Circuits Ltd make a number of improvements to its disabled facilities including an extra 31 wheelchair spaces in Woodcote B grandstand, with each space having the added benefit of two allocated seats for friends or family. Woodcote B grandstand was selected for these developments due its fantastic views of the track and large screens, and its close proximity to all the amenities.

2008 - Silverstone builds a new pit wall, complted in January. The BRDC's plans for a new pit and paddock complex at the circuit have received planning permission from the local authorities. This facility is a key part of the BRDC's overall vision for Silverstone and the vital first stage in reconfirming its position at the pinnacle of the motorsport industry and the home of motor racing.

2009 - Silverstone continues with its plans to diversify the business and invest in the circuit and facilities despite the loss of the Formula 1TM Grand Prix. Plans for a new Grand Prix circuit to accommodate MotoGP in 2010 have been confirmed with work due to start in November of this year. Silverstone also continues to be a popular venue for experiential launches and works closely with many motor manufacturers. In order to cater for the increased demand in this area, the Stowe Circuit facilities are being upgraded this Autumn and will feature a 1.2 mile handling circuit, irrigated wet grip handling surface, constant radius circle, split grip braking pad and state of the art hospitality facility.

2010 – Following a 17 year deal agreed with FOM, the Formula 1 British Grand Prix is now safe at Silverstone for the foreseeable future. In addition, the Northamptonshire venue's new Grand Prix Circuit was officially opened by HRH The Duke York, KG and BRDC President Damon Hill OBE on 29 April. In 2010, Silverstone's new circuit has already hosted the AirAsia British Grand Prix (MotoGP) on 18-20 June which marked the return of Grand Prix motorcycle racing to Silverstone (the last race being held at the circuit in 1986). This year's Formula 1 Santander British Grand Prix will be held on the new 3.66 mile (5.89km) circuit which includes five new turns. Work is currently also taking place on the new Pit and Paddock Complex which is scheduled for completion in 2011.

2011 –The first Formula One British Grand Prix to be operated from the new pit and paddock complex, The Silverstone Wing. The building was officially opened on 17 May 2011 by HRH the Duke of Kent, KG, President in Chief of the British Racing Drivers'

Silverstone Circuit

Club. The opening was attended by five of Britain's six living Formula World Champions – John Surtees OBE, Sir Jackie Stewart OBE, Nigel Mansell OBE, Damon Hill OBE and Jenson Button MBE, along with fellow Formula One luminaries, Sir Stirling Moss, Sir Frank Williams, Christian Horner, Ross Brawn, David Coulthard, Martin Brundle and Murray Walker.

2012 – The Silverstone Wing is completed with Halls 4 and 5 on the top floor finished in June, ready for use by the Formula One Paddock Club. The Wing houses 41 garages, race control, media centre, auditorium, podium and hospital-ity areas and represents the second stage of a multi-million pound investment in the Home of British Motor Racing. This year's Grand Prix is looking to attract a record crowd and extra grandstands have been built to accommodate them over 71,000 fans will be seated at this year's event.

2013 – Building of the Silverstone University Technical College, alongside National Pits Straight, is well underway and on schedule to welcome students in September 2013. The Silverstone UTC will offer young people aged 14 to 19 the opportunity to specialise in high performance engineering or events management alongside their core curriculum study. During 2013, Silverstone has also made significant investment in the circuit's infrastructure to improve on-site camping and car park facilities with the installation of additional drainage systems.

2014 - In the second half of 2013, the BRDC secured an investment with MEPC, who acquired a 999-year lease on the Silverstone Industrial Estate and land around the outside of the circuit, on which planning permission has been granted. This agreement does not include the management or development of the circuit itself. 2014 sees the celebration of the 50th Grand Prix being held at Silverstone, since Luigi Villoresi won the first Grand Prix in 1948, two years before the inauguration of the FIA Formula One World Championship.

2015 - began with the BRDC appointing a new management team at Silverstone Circuits Limited. This resulted in a new ticket pricing strategy for the British Grand Prix, with more affordable prices and a family-friendly offer with children aged 10 and under now attending for free. Changes to the venue included an additional 1500 seat grandstand at Club and an increase of 800 seats at Wellington Straight. The first phase of the Silverstone Wall of Fame was opened in May 2015 at the historic Bridge section of the former Grand Prix Circuit. The Wall enables fans to cement their place in Silverstone's history with their names and dedications on personalised engraved stones.

2018 - Construction begins on brand new visitor attraction. The Silverstone Experience which is supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund, will take visitors on an exciting 2.5 hour journey through the past, present and future of Silverstone and British Motor Racing. State of the art interactive displays will tell the fascinating stories of human endeavour, great sporting rivalries and engineering innovation.

2019 - The Silverstone circuit has recently had a complete resurface. A bespoke and highly durable asphalt solution engineered and developed for Silverstone was used for a joint-free surface across the width of the track achieved by continuous paving. The project began at the end of June this year and was completed within a three week timeframe.

The Silverstone Experience, a brand-new family attraction, situated at the main entrance of Silverstone Circuit, opens later this year. The Silverstone Experience takes visitors on a thrilling 3-hour journey and celebrates the past, present and future of Silverstone.

A new hotel is currently under construction at the circuit scheduled to open in 2020. The 197-room Hilton Garden Inn hotel overlooks the start/finish line, opposite the iconic Wing building and will feature a pedestrian footbridge over the circuit to link the hotel with the Wing.
