Australian Grand Prix

Press Information: Engine Tokens

Prior to the start of the 2015 Formula One World Championship, and in accordance with Appendix 4 of the F1 Technical Regulations, the following 'tokens' have been used by the 2014 power unit manufacturers.

Ferrari	22 of 32 tokens
Mercedes	25 of 32 tokens
Renault	20 of 32 tokens

As a new power unit manufacturer for the 2015 season, Honda has been granted an allowance of nine tokens for in-season development. This is based on the average of those available to the 2014 power unit manufacturers. The following residuals are therefore available for use in-season:

Ferrari	10 tokens
Honda	9 tokens
Mercedes	7 tokens
Renault	12 tokens
