

MDD

With more than 50 years of medical, training and management skills, as a team we are passionate about the service we provide, and the sports we work within. As individuals we remain dedicated fans of the many and varied race series we are fortunate to be involved with.

Our goal is to improve the safety, the level of training and the quality of equipment with our state-of-the-art trauma care training and supplies to high-risk areas like motorsport.