

OMP

OMP is a leading company in the field of design and production of accessories for the Racing, Karting, Vintage, Tuning, Off Road and Sportswear sectors.

Founded in Genoa in 1973, the company has grown over the years thanks to the success of its products. In addition to the production of roll bars and safety components for racecars, the company is especially known for its fireproof racesuits worn by the highly decorated champions of Formula 1 and World Rally like Michael Schumacher, Gerard Berger, Ayrton Senna, Nigel Mansell, Tommy Makinen, Juka Kankkunen, Carlos Sainz and Petter Solberg.

In February 2008 the control of OMP was acquired by SAYE S.P.A Group, held by the genovese Delprato brothers. Nowadays 96% of the company is held by SAYE S.P.A Group and 4% by Lapo Salvadori, a financial manager. Board of Directors: Alberto Delprato (President and C.E.O.), Paolo Delprato (Vice President and C.E.O.), Federico Minoli, Lapo Salvadori and Fabrizio Villa (Board Members).

Today OMP has a modern, recently renovated plant in Ronco Scrivia of about 30,000 sq m with more than 80 workers and 1 international subsidiary company in Miami (Florida).
