

PAUL HEMBERY

Paul Hembery joined Pirelli in 1992 in the UK Research and Development department, subsequently moving to Carlisle production facility to run the new product industrialization team.

From 1993 to 1995 he was part of the Milan R&D team working on advanced product projects and from 1996 to 1999 returned to Carlisle as Technical Director for the UK Research and Development Centre.

He was subsequently appointed Motorsport Director in Milan, before moving to Singapore as Managing Director Pirelli East Asia and Pacific. Since 2010 he has been responsible for the Pirelli F1 project.