

Saul Billingsley

Saul is Director General of the FIA Foundation. He is also co-Chair of the Road Safety Fund, jointly established by the FIA Foundation and the World Health Organization to support the UN Decade of Action for Road Safety 2011-2020, and served as its founding Director between 2010 and 2014.

Saul serves as a Trustee of two UK charities, the International Road Assessment Programme (iRAP) which encourages safer road design in middle and low income countries; and Make Roads Safe, which promotes global road traffic injury prevention. He is also a member of the Executive Board of the World Bank's Global Road Safety Facility and is a global coordinator of the Make Roads Safe campaign, and devised its current 'Long Short Walk' campaign. Saul was Deputy Director General of the FIA Foundation from 2004-2013 and its first Programmes Director from 2001-2004.
