

TIM SHEARMAN

Tim Shearman was appointed President of the Canadian Automobile Association (CAA) in December 2007. Tim joined CAA in 2004 as Vice President, Corporate Affairs.

A graduate of the University of Ottawa, Tim also holds an MBA in International Business from McMaster University. He obtained the Chartered Director (C. Dir.) designation from the Directors' College (a joint venture of McMaster University and the Conference Board of Canada) in 2010.

He began his career as a financial analyst with a telecom firm before transferring his skills to the banking world where he held a series of progressively senior management positions.

In his time at CAA, Tim has earned a reputation for working collaboratively with the Board of Directors and its committees, Club CEOs and staff, and external stakeholder groups. Tim has over 20 years of experience demonstrating a track record of leadership and collaborative management.

As President of CAA, Tim's priorities have been to build upon the strengths of the Association while focusing on its core priorities; to promote CAA as it evolves as a dynamic and forward-thinking organization; to ensure that the Association remains meaningful to its membership; and to build strong partnerships with external stakeholders bringing increased value to CAA members.

Tim is a volunteer hockey and soccer coach, a Director with the Traffic Injury Research Foundation, and a past Director of the Boys and Girls Club of Ottawa. Tim lives in Kanata with his wife, Helene and their three children.
