

Tom Phillips

Formula E Press Officer

Based in the UK, Tom Phillips has been the press office for the new all-electric FIA Formula E Championship since April 2013.

After graduating from university with a degree in English and journalism, Tom worked as a lifestyle journalist for three years before moving to London to work in public relations for Renault's motorsport programme. He spent three seasons working as the press office for the Formula Renault 2.0 and Clio Cup UK series, alongside additional PR work for Renaultsport, World Series by Renault (UK races) and additional motorsport clients such as Michelin.

In 2011, he became the press officer and FIA media delegate for the FIA Formula 2 Championship where he stayed for two seasons before joining Formula E where he currently oversees all media communications for the series and has been a key factor in its global promotion.

The 32-year-old currently lives in London and enjoys motorsport, sports and music.
