Technical Delegate's Report

During the Pirelli tyre test, which took place in the first 30 minutes of the second free practice session, from 15:00 to 15:30, car number 03, driver Daniel Ricciardo, did not use the two test tyre sets as allocated. The car was fitted with the front left tyre of the sets in the opposite way:

DEV	67T LF		68T RF		69T LR		70T RR
03901	12934935	59590	12930234	59651	12936795	59544	12930096	86314
03902	12936851	59629	12930264	59670	12936783	59523	12930078	59547

As Article 24.2 a) of the 2020 Formula One Sporting Regulations requires the driver to use the complete set of tyres of the same specification and as allocated by the FIA, I am referring this matter to the stewards for their consideration.
