Note to Teams

As you know, if a driver cuts behind the apex of a corner, on the exit of turn 2 for example, but doesn't gain a place or a clear time advantage, no action is likely. A second occurrence will however result in a report being made to the stewards.

A report will also be made to the stewards immediately if any driver is suspected of deliberately cutting a corner in order to avoid being overtaken, this will be reported as a possible case of leaving the track without a justifiable reason.
