WELCOME TO CIRCUIT DE BARCELONA-CATALUNYA

The Formula 1 World Championship will make its usual stop at Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya on 7, 8 and 9 May to stage the fifth round of the calendar, the FORMULA 1 ARAMCO GRAN PREMIO DE ESPAÑA 2021. The venue, a consolidated racetrack which is much appreciated by the premier class of car racing, will be staging the 31th consecutive race in their facilities, within the frame of its 30th anniversary, a milestone that only a few circuits have achieved in the history of this sport.

Sitges, Pedralbes and later Montjuïc were host to the Formula 1 World Championship until 1975. The relationship between the top level motorsport competition and Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya started on 29 September 1991, only 19 days after the inauguration of the facilities, with Nigel Mansell winning the race, joined on the podium by Alain Prost and Riccardo Patrese. Along these years, the Circuit has had several different race winners, most of them world champions: Nigel Mansell, Alain Prost, Damon Hill, Michael Schumacher, Jacques Villeneuve, Mika Häkkinen, Kimi Räikkönen, Fernando Alonso, Felipe Massa, Jenson Button, Mark Webber, Sebastian Vettel, Pastor Maldonado, Lewis Hamilton, Nico Rosberg and Max Verstappen.

After a streak of 10 different winners in 10 years, Lewis Hamilton broke the course of history at the Circuit. The Briton won the four last editions, in addition to the victory he achieved in 2014.

A season with a more level playing field

In addition to the local drivers, this year's diverse grid is providing for many surprises. The fourth round of the year features an impressive Lewis Hamilton in the lead, claiming for his champion condition, with a total of 69 points. However, Mercedes is far from a double top, as he is closely followed by Max Verstappen with 61 points. The two of them have been the winners of this year's races, two for Hamilton and one for Verstappen. Behind Mercedes and Red Bull, there is a McLaren machine, something that had not happened for some time. It is Lando Norris, who is strengthening his position within the English team, through brilliant performances, and already 37 points.

Right behind the top 3 there is Valtteri Bottas, who, despite his good results, had a zero in the second race of the season staged in Italy, which pushed him down in the standings. Charles Leclerc follows him, only 4 points behind. The Monaco-born driver is being regular, always within the top five or six positions. The sixth place in the Championship is held by Checo Pérez, who is surely more than happy to be part of the Red Bull Racing Honda team. Daniel Ricciardo (McLaren), Carlos Sainz (Ferrari), Esteban Ocon (Alpine) and Pierre Gasly (AlphaTauri) complete the top ten positions of the F1 World Championship. Fernando Alonso is on twelfth position.

Again, two local representatives

This edition will be twice as special and interesting. After two campaigns with a single national representative, Fernando Alonso has returned to become part of this select group next to Carlos Sainz. They are both facing huge challenges in their sports careers and may achieve good results at their home Grand Prix. The two-times World Champion is back with Alpine, the name adopted by the team with which he achieved his two titles, while Carlos Sainz is wearing the typical red colour of the legendary Maranello-based squad, Ferrari.

Talking about them is almost like talking about the history of Spanish car racing at top level competition. One with an experience of almost 20 years in the FIA Formula One Championship, and the other, with more than five years. All eyes will be focussed on them in a season that promises to be more contested than in recent times, especially as regards the top positions.

More thrill with the Support Championships

This edition Formula 1® will be accompanied by the best car racing championships, as usual. On the one hand, Formula 3® will have their opening round at the Circuit. The edition promises to be better than ever, as the series is filled with new young talents. Some of them with family names that are more than well-known in the world of motorsports: Leclerc, Doohan or Schumacher, amongst others.

On the other hand, the recently created Formula Regional Europe Championship by Alpine, a merger of former single-seater series that intends to boost the promotion of talented drivers. And the Spanish national talents will have a lot to say, as there are several local drivers who have registered for this championship. David Vidales, Mari Boya, Lorenzo Fluxà and Belén García complete the national representation at Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya and expect to have an excellent season start at their second round of the season.

An impact that pushes the limits of the racetrack

Beyond the action on the track, the drivers and the races as such, the fact of being host, for another year, to a Grand Prix of the large circus, implies turning Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya into an engine of economic activity in the region, helping to improve the economic perspectives of the second quarter of the year of a city like Barcelona and the Vallès Oriental region. The staging of the FORMULA 1 ARAMCO GRAN PREMIO DE ESPAÑA 2021 implies the acceleration of the service sector during a whole week. Transport, catering and hotels record very good figures.

According to studies carried out by DEP a couple of years ago, Formula 1 left around 188 million euros in the region in 2014 and 163 million in 2015. This last figure of 163 million was also achieved in 2018, according to a study made by Business-Sport.es, which positioned the Spanish GP on fourth position of the calendar in terms of the largest economic impact.

However, 2020 left a quite different panorama. As a consequence of the pandemic, the Circuit, just as most of the racetracks and international sports venues, closed its doors to the public. But even though, all in all, considering teams, drivers and organisation, the premier class of motor racing moves around 2,000 people who stay for about a whole week in the Vallès Oriental area, in Barcelona and in its metropolitan area. The economic impact continues to be considerable, a fact that is reflected in the companies that usually work for the teams, as well as accommodation, catering, cleaning, access controls, machine rental, etc.

But the impact of a Grand Prix goes far beyond of the figures. Barcelona is showcased as a cosmopolitan and modern city, as well as the territory in general. The media coverage beats expectations year after year, with media representatives from a large number of different nationalities coming from all continents, showcasing these images through their televisions, radios, publications in the press, digital media, etc.

One thousand Circuit Members will be able to watch the Formula 1 GP on Sunday on site

The FORMULA 1 ARAMCO GRAN PREMIO DE ESPAÑA will finally be able to welcome 1,000 fans on 9 May, the day on which the alarm state ends in Spain.

Given the relaxation of the measures in force for the containment of the epidemic outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic, Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya has drawn-up a new access protocol, which includes the attendance of a maximum of 1,000 people, in line with the measures established by the Catalan Civil Protection Office (PROCICAT) for outdoor events, which can be staged with a 50% capacity and a maximum of 1,000 people with previously allocated seats.

The chance to be able to watch the Grand Prix on site will be offered to Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya Members. As the number of members is much higher than one thousand, all those wishing to attend the Grand Prix, will have to register to enter a draw that will be made in front of a notary public, in order to make a random choice of 1,000 Circuit Members, who will be able to attend.

The 1,000 Circuit Members will be able to follow the track activity from the lower section of the Main Grandstand. Each seat will be separated from the other by a free space on either side (right and left) and in the front (front and rear) in order to guarantee for the necessary social distance. They will have to wear masks at all times and it will neither be allowed to smoke nor to consume beverages or food on the grandstand. To this end, there will be different catering areas provided that will guarantee for the maximum possible safety and health conditions.

Conscience, commitment and coherence with the environment

The FORMULA 1 ARAMCO GRAN PREMIO DE ESPAÑA 2021 is not only engines. The Circuit is also committed to the philosophy of the 3C management for sustainability, integrating the social, economic and environmental components. And this is done with conscience, commitment and coherence, by means of a wide range of actions.

These include the use of 100% renewable energy, food donations, the use of okm catering products, waste management, sustainable forestry in the surroundings of the Circuit, and the use of circular economy to fund it by means of other sustainable actions, among many others.
