WELCOME TO CIRCUIT DE BARCELONA-CATALUNYA

The wait is over. After an exciting start to the season, it is time for Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya. The FORMULA 1 PIRELLI GRAN PREMIO DE ESPAÑA 2022 will take place from 20 to 22 May, turning the sports facilities into the host venue for the World Championship caravan for the 32nd consecutive year. In addition, drivers and teams land on a track they know perfectly, as this winter they returned to Barcelona to carry out several pre-season testing days.

The relationship between the top-level motorsport competition and Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya started on 29 September 1991, only 19 days after the inauguration of the facilities, with Nigel Mansell winning the race, joined on the podium by Alain Prost and Riccardo Patrese. Sitges, Pedralbes and later Montjuïc were host to the Formula 1 World Championship until 1975.

Along these years, the Circuit has had several different race winners, most of them world champions: Nigel Mansell, Alain Prost, Damon Hill, Michael Schumacher, Jacques Villeneuve, Mika Häkkinen, Kimi Räikkönen, Fernando Alonso, Felipe Massa, Jenson Button, Mark Webber, Sebastian Vettel, Pastor Maldonado, Lewis Hamilton, Nico Rosberg and Max Verstappen.

After a streak of 10 different winners in 10 years, Lewis Hamilton broke the course of history at the Circuit. The Briton won the five last editions, in addition to the victory he achieved in 2014. This year, however, after what seems to be the end of the Mercedes era, the picture looks very different to that of recent years.

The most evenly matched F1 in recent times

After F1's stops in Bahrain, Saudi Arabia, Australia, Italy and Miami, the World Championship arrives in Catalonia with Charles Leclerc leading the standings by 19 points ahead of Max Verstappen. The Monegasque's consistency puts him in the lead, although the reigning world champion has a total of three wins, one more than Leclerc. Verstappen has won every race he has been able to finish. Both are emerging as the main contenders for the crown, although behind them the rivalry is equal or greater.

Checo Pérez is third, followed by George Russell and Carlos Sainz. The Spaniard arrives at his home race after an impressive third place finish at the Miami GP and will certainly be looking to match or better his result in front of the home crowd. In sixth place, Lewis Hamilton, who is facing a somewhat difficult start to the year.

The other home driver, Fernando Alonso, will try to change the course of events, after accumulating some races without luck on his side. The Asturian has in his memory his last F1 victory, which he achieved in 2013 at Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya. Surely the support of the fans will give him an extra boost at his home GP.

Promising start to the F2® season for Pourchaire

Bahrain, Saudi Arabia and Italy have already seen the intermediate category of this World Motor Racing Championship in action. In a few days, Formula 2 will make its second stop in Europe with Théo Pourchaire at the helm. Despite failing to score points in the second round of the year, the Frenchman is four points ahead of Felipe Drugovich. Jehan Daruvala completes the provisional top three, followed by Liam Lawson in fourth and Richard Verschoor in fifth.

Maximum equality in F3®

Up to seven drivers are within seven points of each other in the Formula 3 World Championship points table. Led by Victor Martins and Arthur Leclerc, who are both tied on points, the championship's first two rounds of the year have been very evenly matched. In addition to Leclerc's younger brother, there are other well-known names in the championship, such as Enzo Trulli and David Schumacher. David Viales and Pepe Martí are the Spanish representatives, together with Brad Benavides, who competes under the American flag, but also has Spanish nationality.

First experience of the W Series at the Circuit

Having already completed a few days of official pre-season at Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya, the W Series will be tested for the first time at the Barcelona circuit as an event of the racing calendar. With only one meeting held in Miami, the women's international event has a lot to say. Reigning champion Jamie Chadwick leads the way after a double victory, but with Spain's Nerea Martí behind her in the rankings. It is also worth highlighting the role of Belén García, the Catalan driver who just missed out on the podium in the United States. Marta García joins this national trio that will be a talking point this year.

A boost for the economy

To speak of the FORMULA 1 PIRELLI GRAN PREMIO DE ESPAÑA 2022 is to speak in the plural. An event of international projection that year after year brings together thousands of people from all over the world, who stay for almost a week in the city of Barcelona and its surroundings.

Montmeló, Barcelona and Catalonia become the focus of a long list of media attention highlighting their qualities as hosts of the biggest motorsport event in the world. Not without reason: the GP generates an impact of 163 million euros*.

The average spectator spends 1,008 euros, and the total amount spent on the days of the event in Barcelona is 28 million euros, with a very significant part of this amount spent on accommodation. Not only does the tourism sector benefit through its hotels, but restaurants and leisure also experience a considerable peak in consumption.

On a cultural level, the image of Catalonia is projected onto all these people, who experience first-hand the culture, gastronomy and customs of one of the most admired Mediterranean regions.

Apart from the attendants, the inhabitants of the towns near Montmeló benefit from more than 2,000 jobs between the offers of Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya itself and the concessionary companies.

Moreover, the connection between the motor industry present in Catalonia and the sporting activity carried out at Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya is evident. For example, the dates of the Barcelona Motor Show are determined once the dates of the Formula 1 Grand Prix are known.

The Circuit hangs up the 'sold out' sign

The FORMULA 1 PIRELLI GRAN PREMIO DE ESPAÑA 2022 has received one of the best welcomes in recent times. After two atypical years due to the pandemic, with a 2020 edition that was held behind closed doors, plus the 2021 edition to which only 1,000 Circuit Members had access; it seems that motor racing fans are more eager than ever to be able to see the Grand Prix up close. In addition, two home drivers -

Fernando Alonso and Carlos Sainz - will be present at the track again, something that has not happened since 2018.

For this reason, at the end of March, the venue hung up the "sold out" sign and began to work to offer solutions. A few weeks later, new tickets went on sale in the form of a three-day pass. On the one hand, Grandstands A and M were extended, while Grandstand I was installed. Again, all sold out.

The Pelouse Jove, the most economical formula for young people, was also promoted. In just four minutes, the 2,500 Sunday tickets for this area were sold out, making it a resounding success with the public. The Circuit, with the aim of accommodating all the fans who have been left without a ticket, has launched a set of seats with limited visibility with a 25% reduction. This will be the last chance to experience the Spanish Grand Prix live.

The Carlos Sainz Grandstand is back

Among all the available grandstands, the Circuit has the honour of having the Carlos Sainz Grandstand again. Located in Grandstand B, in the Stadium area, fans of the Spanish driver will be able to enjoy one of the most emblematic locations of the track, a place where many overtaking manoeuvres take place.

In addition, buyers receive an unbeatable package. Along with access to all three days of the event and the excellent location, they also get an official Ferrari cap and a flag. All this for a one-off price of 119 euros.

The tickets, which went on sale in mid-March, sold out within hours of being made available. Before midday, the capacity of the Carlos Sainz Grandstand had already been filled. No doubt, both fans and the driver himself will enjoy a unique edition at his home GP, being the first time that everyone will be wearing the red of the legendary Maranello team.

F1 from a more exclusive perspective

The F1 World Championship can be experienced in many different ways. For those who want a more exclusive approach, there are some hospitality products with all the comforts.

The Montjuïc Club is the most exclusive individual Hospitality product of the Circuit available for individuals and companies. Its exceptional location, above the pits, allows all those who occupy it to experience the excitement of the races in a unique way, with views of the pit lane, the starting grid and the paddock. It also has a gastronomic offer all day long.

On the third floor of the Main Grandstand and overlooking the starting grid, pit stops and podium ceremony, the Sky View Racing Lounge is a real treat for fans. It includes a ticket with a numbered seat in this same grandstand, from where you can access the official store's area.

Another option on offer is the Garden Village. Its location offers the possibility of watching the single-seaters take the last corner and head down the main straight at high speed. Thrill combined with the magic of an open-air themed space where the rhythms add up and the atmosphere is unbeatable. It has a catering area with a lounge to enjoy the races surrounded by calm and comfort. It does also provide access to Grandstand H of the Circuit.

Last but not least, the Paddock Club is the closest F1 experience. With a privileged location in the pit lane building, it offers a high-level gastronomic proposal and immersive experiences throughout the weekend.

All these proposals, with the exception of the Paddock Club, have also been sold out.

Multiple entertaining zones

Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya will once again be the venue of many different areas of attention. The Catalan facility will become a festival of fun for the enjoyment of all visitors. Unique experiences and proposals that will make it possible for everyone to enjoy the Grand Prix from 19 to 22 May in his/her own way, always combining motorsport with an unbeatable atmosphere.

The Fan Zone will be located in the public area behind the Main Grandstand and will host activities such as eSports simulators, the pit stop challenge, a reflex game, a photo booth, a replica of the F1 podium and a 2022 car, among others. This area will be open on Friday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., Saturday from 9 a.m. to 7.30 p.m. and Sunday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Orange Zone will be located in Grandstand G, in the Stadium area. DJ Rick Jansen will be in charge of livening up the atmosphere with his live music throughout the weekend so that there is not a minute to spare between on- and off-track activities.

Also in the Stadium area, behind Grandstand B (former heliport area), there will be the Kids Zone, a space for the little ones to enjoy the Circuit as well. There, they will be able to participate in games with make-up, sand art, giant games, group games, skills and karting circuits, sustainable workshops or itinerant characters. These proposals will be available all weekend long from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Green Zone will be located at the entrance of one of the green areas of the Circuit, the Crater Forest. There, families will be able to make handicrafts with their children, using materials related to the forest. There will also be a sustainability stand where the actions being carried out by the Circuit will be disseminated.

The Pelouse Jove will also have the tireless animation of Flaix FM. Edgar Manchado, Héctor Ortega and Miquel González will be on the mixing board when the activity on the track allows it. Pelouse Jove users will also have a giant screen to follow all the action, as well as a free drink.

The Classics are back

The Pit Walk: The first of the confirmed activities was the Pit Walk or the traditional visit to the Pit Lane. For a total of two hours, fans will be able to walk through one of the epicentres of GP activity, the place where the teams' garages are located, as well as the race cars. It will be held on Thursday 19 May from 5.30 p.m. to 7.30 p.m.

Open Track: Once the F1 race is over on Sunday, fans will be able to step onto the Catalan tarmac just a few minutes after their idols have done so in the single-seaters.

Fan Forum: In the public area, specifically in the Fan Zone, a stage will be set up where various protagonists of the event will be appearing on Saturday 21 May. The World Championship drivers will visit this location for a relaxed chat with the fans and to be asked questions.

Conscience, commitment and coherence with the environment

The Circuit will promote a wide range of actions framed within its 3C management philosophy in sustainability, integrating the social, economic and environmental aspects. Under the slogan "Driving for a better future" with conscience, commitment and coherence, in order to contribute to the Sustainable Development Goals of the UNEP Agenda 2030.

These include the use of 100% renewable energy, food donations, the use of okm catering products, waste management, sustainable forestry in the surroundings of the Circuit, and the use of circular economy to fund it by means of other sustainable actions, among many other.

Location

The Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya forms part of the elite of the world circuits and every year receives the great motor sports event: the FORMULA 1 ARAMCO GRAN PREMIO DE ESPAÑA 2021. Thanks to its privileged location, it is also able to offer a multitude of options as a great tourist attraction.

The Circuit is alongside the AP7 motorway, which connects France with Catalonia, Madrid and Zaragoza, and closer to the airports at Girona (60 km) and Barcelona (35 km), which connect the Circuit with the whole world.

Just 30 minutes from Barcelona, on your stay, you can visit the city and admire its fantastic architecture: the Sagrada Família Cathedral, the Gothic Quarter, the Ramblas... The city of Barcelona is one of the main European cities and today one of the axes of the Mediterranean economy and the South of Europe.

The beaches of the Maresme, Costa Brava, Costa Daurada, Costa de Garraf, the Roman remains of Tarragona or the Pyrenees are other of the options available to visit.

Catalonia is a leading tourist destination which offers many attractions for any kind of visit: cultural, resting, nature, family, business... A great welcoming capacity and excellent facilities turn it into one of the leading tourist regions of Europe.

With over 24 million tourists a year, Catalonia is the leading tourist destination in Spain.
