As a street circuit held in the heart of the city, traffic congestion is inevitable. It is highly recommended that you use public transport and allow plenty of time to get to and from the Marina Bay Street Circuit.

The Media Centre is located at the Pit Building, which is accessible by a number of gates. There are now a total of six Mass Rapid Transit (MRT/Subway) stations directly serving the event; all less than six minutes walk from the major entrances of the circuit park.

The most prominent landmark to target when heading to the Media Centre is the 165 metre-tall Singapore Flyer, adjacent to the Pit Building. Below are recommended routes and gates to enter the circuit park.
