DECISION N°: WEC_2021_D0016_All_Special testing

DATE: 02/03/2021 FROM: The WEC Committee

SUBJECT: Special testing

APPLICABLE REGULATION

Articles 2021 FIA World Endurance Championship Sporting Regulations

DECISION

The WEC Committee would like to clarify the following article:

8.2.1 Definition

“Private testing” means any testing outside the official collective tests, in which a competitor officially entered in the Championship takes part with one or more car(s) of a model that will take part in the Championship or that could be likely to take part in it.

A Competitor entering the Championship with several cars in the same category may cumulate the number of private test days and use them indiscriminately.

The regulations on private testing are applicable between the publication of the Championship entries and the end of the last Competition of the Championship.

Participation in Competitions counting towards other championships or series is not considered as private testing.

These All the tests defined in Article 8.2, regardless the category limitation, must be declared without exception to the Technical Delegate (g.bouttier@lemans.org) using the test declaration form, respecting the pre-announcement deadline (see article 8.3.3).

8.2.4 Special testing (LMGTE-Pro only)

Special testing means testing organised by a competitor and in which total track time must not exceed 1 hour per car per day.

Special testing are limited for LMGTE Pro only, as defined by article 8.3.3.

PERIOD OF VALIDITY/APPLICATION OF THE DECISION

This decision comes into effect:

- with immediate application
 from:

And is applicable:

- until further notice
 for the mentioned Competition(s) only

Any decision taken by the WEC Committee is not subject to appeal.
